Application materials received in the Office of Admission become the property of the University of Maine System and the university to which the student is seeking enrollment. University policy requires these records be retained and not returned to the applicant nor forwarded or released to a third party outside the University of Maine System.

Mail to: Mail this completed application and the appropriate application fee(s) to:

Application Processing Center, University of Maine System P.O. Box 412, Bangor, ME 04402-0412

If you have questions about the application process, contact each university's Office of Admission.

For your information:

- Maine State Law requires that all full-time and degree-seeking part-time students born after 1956 show proof of adequate immunization against measles (rubeola), rubella, diphtheria, mumps and tetanus. Students will be notified by the university they plan to attend concerning required documentation.
- Americans with Disabilities Act. University of Maine System universities are prepared to assist students with disabilities. If you have a disability and would appreciate help in eliminating a barrier to your admission or subsequent campus experience, please write or call the Admissions Office at the university to which you are applying. All information disclosed will be considered confidential. Should you require accommodations to complete this application, contact the Admissions Office to which you are applying.
- Clery Act. The Clery Act requires universities to disclose three-year statistics regarding campus crime, including public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. This report includes our policies for campus security, such as those concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters. You can obtain a copy of this report by contacting each of the campuses to which you are applying. The report is available on each campus website.
- Equal Opportunity Policy. In complying with the letter and spirit of applicable laws and pursuing its own goals of diversity, the University of Maine System shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, including transgender status or gender expression, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, or veteran's status in employment, education, and all other areas of the University System. The University provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities upon request. All universities within the University of Maine System are authorized under Federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

Questions and complaints about discrimination in any area of the University should be directed to the campus Equal Opportunity Director; for contact information visit <http://www.maine.edu/system/hr/eoo.php>.
